FRICK RESIGNS

WHENHISREPORT IS THROWN

Equitable Directors at Their Prolonged Session Late To-Day Dismiss Committee's Findings by an Almost Unanimous Vote:

VICE-PRESIDENT HYDE WINS ALL HE TRIED FOR.

Bitterest Kind of Feeling During the Late Afternoon Session and Many Lively Personal Arguments-Alexander Had to Become an Ally of Young Vice-President.

The report of the Frick Committee, which was appointed to inwestigate the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was almost unanimously rejected by the Board of Directors at their meeting late this afternoon. Names H. Hyde won everything, and Mr. Frick was so disgusted with the outcome of the meeting that in a fit of anger he resigned from the Board. E. H. Harriman, who is generally believed to have inspired the report that was rejected, had nothing to say when he left the meeting.

The Directors were in session almost all day. Nothing was accom plished at the morning session, although Mr. Alexander and Mr. Hyde both made speeches protesting against the adoption of the report, which is said to have called for their dismissal as well as the dismissal of Gage E. Tar-GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, June 2 The May Stakes was the feature of he card at Gravesend this afternoon and though there were selling condi-tions attached there was an excellent class of entries and a cracking good race was promised. There were also two handicaps, one at the short six furlongs and the other at a mile and a quarter. Both promised contests out of the ordinary. The card was so attractive that there was an unusually large attendance for a Friday and the of business. The weather was fine and the track fast.

YOUNG CORBETT AND ED HANLON AWAITING GONG

Both in Fine Fettle and Confident for To-night's Battle.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Both
Young Corbett and Eddie Hanlon weighed in this afternoon and each man were opened there was a big crowd ready to pay all kinds of money for choice seats. In the early evening, or rather in the late afternoon, there was more betting on Corbett. The early betting was at an average of 8 to on Corbett. Later in the day the Corbett crowd gave in to the Hanlon backers and the adds were fixed at 2 to 1. During the afternoon thousands dollars were put up on the fight. fternoon, took a long rest in prepara tion for the fight. He expressed him-self perfectly confident of winning the "I expect to end the bout within battle.

"I expect to end the bout within fourteen rounds." Young Corbett said after he had weighed in. "Make a bet on that proposition and you will come pretty near picking up a piece of change."

When this information was carried to Hanlon he only smiled and said in his quiet way:

"The Corbett bunch may be disappointed. There is no telling what may happen to surprise that kid. As for myself. I never felt better in my life and if I am not the winner to-night I have no one to blame but myself. Personally it is my opinion that the bout will go the limit or close to the required twenty rounds unless there is a chance blow that lands in the right spot. I am just as confident of winning this fight as Corbett is and I am going to put up the fight of my life. It means more to me than it does to him."

Because of the adverse criticism concerning Mark Shaughnessy, whom Corbeit and Hanlon chose as referee for their battle. Manager Greggains declared they must pick a man with an excellent reputation or he would make a selection himself.

"I have asked Jere Dunn to act as third man in the ring if Hanlon and Cerbett cannot agree on some local man of prominence," said Greggains."
"He is an absolutely honest official."
